Iranian aims:

(the US accepts a dialogue "in mutual respect" and agrees that Iran puts the following aims on the agenda)

- US refrains from supporting change of the political system by direct interference from outside
- Abolishment of all sanctions: commercial sanctions, frozen assets, refusal of access to WTO
- Iraq, pursuit of MKO, support of repatriation of MKO-members, support of Iranian claims for Iraqi reparation, no Turkish invasion in North Iraq, respect for Iranian national interests in Iraq and religious links to Najaf/Kerbala.
- Access to peaceful nuclear technology, biotechnology and chemical technology
- Recognition of Iran's legitimate security interests in the region with according defense capacity
- Terrorism: action against MKO and affiliated organizations in the US

US aims: (Iran agrees that the US puts the following aims on the agenda)

- WMD: full transparency for security that there are no framan endeavours to develop or possess
 WMD, full cooperation with IAEA based on framan adoption of all relevant instruments (93+2 and all further IAEA protocols)
- Terrorism: decisive action against any terrorists (above all Al Qaida) on Iranian territory, full cooperation and exchange of all relevant information
- Iraq: coordination of Iranian influence for actively supporting political stabilization and the establishment of democratic institutions and a non-religious government.
- Middle East:
 - stop of any material support to Palestinian apposition groups (Hamas, Jihad etc.) from Iranian territory, pressure on these organisations to stop violent action against civilians within borders of 1967.
 - action on Hisbollah to become a mere political organization within Lebanon
 - 3) acceptance of the Arab League Beirut deei in (Saudi initiative, two-states-approach)

Steps:

- communication of mutual agreement on the following pracedure
- If mutual simultanous statements "we have the tays been ready for direct and authoritative talks with the US/with Iran with the aim of discussing in mutual respect our common interests and our mutual concerns, but we have always made it clear that, such talks can only be held, if genuine progress for a solution of our own conterns can be achieved".
- III. a first direct meeting on the aproprate level (for instance in Paris) will be held with the previously agreed aims
 - a) of a decision on the first mutual steps
 - Iraq: establishment of a common group, active franian support for fraqi stabilization, US-commitment to resolve MKO problem in Iraq, US-comitment to take franian reparation claims into the discussion on Iraq foreign debts
 - Terrorism: Iranian comitment for enhanced action against Al Qaida members in Iran, agreement on cooperation and information exchange
 - Iranian general statement "to support a peaceful solution in the Middle East involving the parties concerned"
 - US-acceptance of ira tian access to WTO-membership negotiations
 - b) of the establishment of three parallel working groups on disarmament, regional security, and economic cooperation. Their aim is an agreement on three parallel road maps, for the discussions of these working groups each side accepts that the other side's aims (see above) are put on the agenda:
 - Disarmament: road map, which combines the mutual aims of, on the one side, full transparency by international commitments and guarantees to abstain from WMD with, on the other side, access to western technology (in the three areas),
 - 2) Terrorism and regional security: road map for above mentioned aims on Middle East and terrorism
 - Economic cooperation road map for the abolishment of the sanctions and solution of frozen assets
 - c) and of a public statement after this first meeting on the achieved agreements
